1. The creation of the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) best illustrates the New Deal’s commitment to—

   A. financial reform.
   B. agricultural relief.
   C. rural electrification.
   D. industrial recovery.

2. Why did people in the Great Depression call their temporary settlement communities “Hoovervilles”?

   A. President Hoover was very popular during the depression.
   B. They blamed President Hoover for the depression.
   C. They wanted to remember President Hoover.
   D. President Hoover grew up in similar housing.

3. Use the following statements to answer the following question(s).

   - The 18th Amendment to the Constitution became the law of the land in January 1920.
   - This “Noble Experiment,” as it was called, is considered by most to have been a dismal failure.
   - Many believe the 18th Amendment gave birth to organized crime and created more problems than it solved.

   The statements above describe which event?

   A. civil rights
   B. Prohibition
   C. immigration
   D. suffrage

4. How did the Dust Bowl affect the Great Plains during the Great Depression?

   A. Thousands of families left for the West Coast.
   B. It brought economic prosperity to urban areas.
   C. Thousands of individuals relocated to the East.
   D. It caused a population decline in northeastern cities.
5. Franklin Roosevelt's immediate response to the banking crisis after becoming president was to
   A. declare a bank holiday that closed banks in the United States for several days.
   B. nationalize the banks to ensure they were following federal regulations.
   C. establish the Federal Reserve to reduce the possibility of another bank emergency.
   D. borrow money from foreign banks to support the U.S. banking industry.

6. What was a challenge to religious fundamentalism in the 1920s?
   A. the sermons of Billy Sunday
   B. the teachings of John T. Scopes
   C. the speeches of William Jennings Bryan
   D. the broadcasts of Aimee Semple McPherson

7. Why did the Bonus Army march to Washington, D.C., in 1932?
   A. The army was preparing for World War II.
   B. The Capitol needed extra soldiers to protect it from riots.
   C. President Hoover requested their support for his policies.
   D. Jobless veterans wanted their bonuses paid early.

8. Which legislative action, during the administration of Franklin Roosevelt, had the greatest effect on resolving the problems of the economy and protecting the elderly from poverty?
   A. the establishment of a minimum wage
   B. the insurance of federal deposits
   C. the enactment of Social Security
   D. the building of suburbs

9. The photograph below shows the results of a government policy in the 1900s.

With which set of government policies is the photograph associated?

A. the Fair Deal  B. the New Deal
C. the New Frontier  D. the Great Society
10. The economic depression of the 1930s was ended by the—

A. demand for manufactured goods caused by World War II.
B. effects of the New Deal on the United States economy.
C. removal of federal regulations on the stock market.
D. “baby boom” and the resulting rise of suburbs.

11. Which evidence showed that the prosperity of the 1920s was an illusion?

A. Prices on consumer goods decreased.
B. Overseas investments declined.
C. The income gap between workers and managers decreased.
D. Many people increased their debt.

12. Which group supported the prohibition of alcohol during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries?

A. the transcendentalists
B. the abolitionists
C. the Women’s Christian Temperance Union
D. the National American Women Suffrage Association

13. From 1919-1920, people in the United States were caught up in the Red Scare, which was a fear of—

A. the government being taken over by business interests.
B. the government being influenced by communists.
C. the country being invaded by a foreign army.
D. corporations being controlled by labor unions.

14. The trend illustrated on the graph above contributed the most to the—

A. decrease in road construction projects.
B. growth of suburban developments.
C. decreased role of government in daily life.
D. increasing importance of public transportation systems.
15. Harlem Renaissance Timeline

- 1917—African-American publication The Messenger is founded
- 1920—Charles Sidney Gilpin performs lead role in The Emperor Jones
- 1921—Harry Pace founds the Black Swan Phonograph Corporation
- 1921—Musical revue Shuffle Along opens on Broadway
- 1922—Claude McKay’s novel Harlem Shadows published
- 1925—Survey Graphic magazine devotes an issue to the Harlem Renaissance

How was the Harlem Renaissance a turning point for U.S. society?

A. It allowed African-American artists to escape the effects of the Great Depression.
B. It helped African Americans find artistic careers in southern cities.
C. It gave exposure to African-American writings, art, music, acting, and dance.
D. It offered preferential treatment to African-American stage actors.

16. What did the flapper image of the 1920s represent for U.S. women?

A. changing religious roles
B. a challenge to traditional values
C. greater political influence
D. more educational opportunities

17. The factors listed in the box above include:

- Poor economic conditions in the South
- Decreases in the number of agricultural jobs in the South
- Manufacturing jobs available in the North
- African American workers recruited by northern agents

Which of the following is an appropriate title for the factors listed in the box above?

A. Creation of the NAACP
B. Effects of Jim Crow Laws
C. Causes of the Great Migration
D. Impact of the Harlem Renaissance

18. This chart shows a trend in immigration to the United States from 1920–1939.

What is the most likely cause of this trend?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Years</th>
<th>Immigrants</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1920–1929</td>
<td>4,295,510</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930–1939</td>
<td>699,375</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

A. Economic depression
B. Education restrictions
C. Expansion to the West
D. Increased industrialization
19. The photograph shows a common form of entertainment in the 1920s.

Source: Courtesy of Library of Congress DLC-USZ60-108997

The photograph could be used in a museum exhibit about which trend in American history?

A. Rise of a mass culture
B. Rise of a youth-based counterculture
C. Role of urbanization in preserving traditional culture
D. Role of immigrants in the formation of urban culture

20. Which roman numeral on the map above correctly shows the location of the 1930s Dust Bowl?

A. I  B. II  C. III  D. IV

21. Why did the number of votes cast in the U.S. Presidential election rise by 8.2 million from 1916 to 1920?

A. The Nineteenth Amendment gave millions of women the right to vote.
B. The people were excited about voting on the issue of Prohibition.
C. Demobilization of the military released millions of men for voting.
D. Warren G. Harding’s call for “normalcy” energized the voters.
22. Marcus Garvey’s program in the 1920s emphasized
   A. vocational training.
   B. a back-to-Africa movement.
   C. integration into mainstream society.
   D. separate-but-equal doctrines.

23. Which factor led directly to the stock market crash of 1929?
   A. buying on the margin
   B. an increase in advertising
   C. decreased worker productivity
   D. the popularity of the automobile

24. Marcus Garvey’s “Back to Africa” movement and the creation of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) were both early-twentieth-century responses to
   A. the passage of more restrictive immigration laws.
   B. the growth of communism in the South.
   C. the practice of racial discrimination in the United States.
   D. the desegregation of World War I combat units.

25. This photograph was taken in 1935.

![Image: Dust Bowl]

Source: NARA

As a result of events like this, what occurred that altered the landscape of the United States?

   A. People constructed dams to irrigate land.
   B. People abandoned farms to move westward.
   C. Urban areas experienced a decline in industrial production.
   D. Suburban areas experienced a growth in commercial activity.

26. In the United States, the Dust Bowl mainly affected—
   A. miners in the Northeast.
   B. farmers in the Midwest.
   C. loggers in the Northwest.
   D. fishermen in the Southeast.
27. After the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that several New Deal programs were unconstitutional, how did President Franklin Roosevelt try to influence future decisions of the Court?

A. by asking important congressmen to start impeachment charges against several court justices
B. by appointing a new chief to the Supreme Court
C. by paying bribes to several justices
D. by trying to increase the number of Supreme Court justices

28. Read the quotation below.

“Our greatest primary task is to put people to work. . . . It can be accomplished in part by direct recruiting by the Government itself, treating the task as we would treat the emergency of a war . . . .”

—Franklin D. Roosevelt, March 4, 1933

Based on the quotation above, Franklin D. Roosevelt most likely worked to

A. increase profits of corporate monopolies
B. promote the general welfare of the nation
C. limit the power of the federal government
D. decrease government restrictions on land use

29. What was the purpose of the federal Works Progress Administration (WPA)?

A. to track cost overruns in state Medicare programs
B. to monitor corporate compliance with Federal Reserve regulations
C. to provide jobs to unemployed workers during the New Deal
D. to judge the benefits of military spending after the expensive Manhattan Project

30. The great majority of Americans may be depressed. They may not be well pleased with the way business and government have been carried on, and they may not be at all sure that they know exactly how to remedy the trouble. They may be feeling dispirited. But there is one thing they are not, and that is—beaten.

—Gerald W. Johnson, Journalist, 1932

Which of the following conclusions can be drawn from the quotation above?

A. Most Americans were unaware of the nation’s problems.
B. Many Americans left the United States to settle in Europe.
C. A majority of Americans refused to give in to their problems.
D. Americans developed a sense of hopelessness.
31. “Have you an automobile yet?”
   “No, I talked it over with John and he felt we could not afford one.”
   “Mr. Judge who lives in your town has one and they are not as well off as you are.”
   “Yes, I know. Their second installment came due, and they had no money to pay it.”
   “What did they do? Lose the car?”
   “No, they got the money and paid the installment.”
   “How did they get the money?”
   “They sold the cook-stove.”
   “How could they get along without a cook-stove?”
   “They didn’t. They bought another on the installment plan.”

   — excerpt from A Personal Voice, 1920s

The excerpt above suggests that one of the causes of the Great Depression was the increasing—

A. price of consumer products.
B. level of consumer debt.
C. availability of imported goods.
D. emphasis on saving money.

32. An important factor that influenced Franklin Roosevelt’s victory over Herbert Hoover in the Presidential election of 1932 was the—

A. end of World War I.
B. beginning of World War II.
C. passage of the Clayton Antitrust Act.
D. continuation of the Great Depression.

33. Early in the Depression, the Hoover Administration established the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to

A. make direct grants to unemployed workers.
B. loan money to banks, insurance companies,
and other depressed businesses.
C. purchase American manufactured goods for export to foreign markets.
D. guarantee a minimum income to all of the nation’s farmers.

34. What was the primary reason for Franklin Roosevelt declaring a bank holiday early in his first term?

A. He wanted to acknowledge the role bankers had played in minimizing the effects of the stock market crash.
B. He wanted to have time to develop a general plan to protect the savings of most Americans.
C. He wanted to encourage bankers to foreclose on the homes and farms of borrowers who failed to pay their loans.
D. He wanted as many people as possible in the banking industry to attend a meeting with the head of the newly created Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

35. African Americans migrated to the North in great numbers after World War I to take advantage of—

A. cheap farmland.    B. job opportunities.
C. social acceptance. D. political rights.
36. Zora Neale Hurston and Langston Hughes had which of the following in common?

A. They were leaders involved with the 1960s civil rights movement.
B. They were initial members of President Franklin Roosevelt's Black Cabinet.
C. They were writers associated with the Harlem Renaissance.
D. They were outspoken opponents to U.S. involvement in Vietnam.

37. Use the following list to answer the question.

Key Developments for the United States in the 1920s

- easy credit and a rise in consumer debt
- growing unemployment in key industries such as construction
- overproduction and declining farm income
- buying stocks on margin and soaring stock prices

What was significant about the developments shown above for the United States in the 1920s?

A. They were causes of World War II.
B. They were signs of difficulties within the U.S. economy.
C. They demonstrated the ability of the Federal Reserve to control the money supply.
D. They led to legislation restricting immigration to the United States.

38. How did the trend on the graph most affect the distribution of population in the United States?

A. Business districts in large cities grew.
B. People began to move in increasing numbers to suburban areas.
C. Industries were forced to relocate to rural areas.
D. People were forced to live closer to their jobs.

39. To many Californians, the arrival of the Dust Bowl refugees of the mid–1930s represented

A. a welcome addition to the labor force.
B. a source of much–needed capital investment.
C. new markets for California businesses.
D. unwanted additions to the ranks of the unemployed.
40. Use the excerpt below to answer the following question.

“I introduced in Congress and supported other measures to bring about the sharing of our wealth when first reached the United States Senate in January 1932...Since then I have been abused in the newspapers and over the radio for everything under the sun. Now that I am pressing this program, the lies and abuse in the big newspapers and over the radio are a matter of daily occurrence. It will all become greater with this effort. Expect that. Meantime go ahead with the work to organize a share-our-wealth society.”

Which person from Louisiana made this statement in 1934?

A. Huey Long       B. Lavinia Egan
C. Jimmie Davis     D. Robert Kennon

41. Which heading best completes this diagram?

```
The Roaring Twenties

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Media</th>
<th>？</th>
<th>Literature</th>
<th>Immigrants</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Ballyhoo</td>
<td>Speakeasies</td>
<td>Expatriates</td>
<td>Nativism</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tabloids</td>
<td>Gangsters</td>
<td>Lost Generation</td>
<td>Red Scare</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
```

A. Prohibition      B. Music
C. Propaganda       D. Fundamentalists

42. One effect of widespread suburbanization in the United States during the 1920s was

A. airlines adding routes to new cities.
B. increased reliance upon the automobile.
C. decreased immigration from Europe and Asia.
D. television replacing radio as the most popular medium.

43. The 1920s phenomenon called the “Harlem Renaissance” primarily involved African American—

A. artists and writers.
B. architects and builders.
C. politicians and business leaders.
D. baseball and basketball players.

44. The primary objective of Harlem Renaissance writers was to

A. encourage militant protest among African Americans.
B. support educational programs for African Americans.
C. improve literacy rates among African Americans.
D. generate pride in African–American culture.
45. Social Security was a New Deal program designed to
   A. foster the growth of trade unions.
   B. promote recovery through economic development.
   C. give direct aid to American businesses.
   D. provide a minimum retirement income.

46. What New Deal program employed large numbers of artists and writers during the Great Depression?
   A. National Recovery Administration (NRA)
   B. Agriculture Adjustment Administration (AAA)
   C. Works Progress Administration (WPA)
   D. National Youth Administration (NYA)

47. Which statement correctly describes the Great Migration of 1914–1920?
   A. Migration of more than one million farmers from the Plains states to the West Coast during the Dust Bowl
   B. Migration of hundreds of thousands of African Americans to northern industrial cities in search of jobs
   C. Immigration of 40,000 Chinese to the United States in order to work on the transcontinental railroad
   D. Immigration of over one million persons of Irish descent to the United States for work in industrial centers in the Northeast

48. In 1934, President Franklin D. Roosevelt created the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) as part of the New Deal. What was the main purpose of the Securities and Exchange Commission?
   A. to restrict the manufacture and sale of alcohol
   B. to regulate the stock and bond markets against fraud
   C. to establish tariffs on imported commercial and agricultural goods
   D. to provide employment for men in the armed forces and border patrol

49. How did New Deal programs and policies change the role of the federal government in domestic affairs?
   A. States were given the exclusive power to implement relief programs for unemployment.
   B. The federal government expanded its role by providing for the welfare of its citizens.
   C. The federal government implemented new security procedures by interning suspected traitors and spies.
   D. States were granted authority to regulate businesses within their boundaries.
50. It is my belief that while they have stirred discontent in our midst, while they have caused irritating strikes, and while they have infected our social ideas with the disease of their own minds and their unclean morals we can get rid of them! and not until we have done so shall we have removed the menace of Bolshevism [communism] for good.

— Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, 1920

In the quotation above, Attorney General Palmer explained the reason for the—

A. Red Scare.
B. Scopes Trial.
C. internment of Japanese Americans.
D. passage of the Chinese Exclusion Act.

52. This table summarizes cultural characteristics of the 1920s.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Traditionalism 1920s</th>
<th>Modernism 1920s</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Women as homemakers</td>
<td>Women in the workplace</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Belief in creationism</td>
<td>Belief in evolution</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Support for temperance</td>
<td>?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Which feature of the 1920s replaces the question mark in the table above?

A. Emphasis on agrarian values
B. Popularity of speakeasies
C. Support for prohibition
D. Use of referendum

53. Franklin Roosevelt’s New Deal was based on the three Rs. Which of the following is not one of the three Rs?

A. Relief
B. Recovery
C. Reform
D. Restitution

54. Which factor contributed to the stock market crash of 1929?

A. overspeculation
B. government regulation of big business
C. decreased investment in business
D. increased agricultural prices
55. Use the graphic organizer to answer the question.

The graphic organizer identifies effects of a New Deal program from the 1930s. Which New Deal program best completes the graphic organizer?

A. Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA)
B. Work Projects Administration (WPA)
C. Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC)
D. Agricultural Adjustment Administration (AAA)

56. Which weakness in the American economy of the 1920s contributed to the Great Depression?

A. High taxation kept consumer spending at a low level.
B. The richest Americans speculated in the stock market.
C. Easy access to credit allowed many Americans to spend more than they earned.
D. Businesses were unable to find enough skilled workers to operate new production machinery.

57. African-American Migrations, 1890–1920

This map shows the percentage change in African-American population from 1890–1920. Which is the most likely reason for the change shown in the map?

A. No racial discrimination in the northern states
B. Increased job opportunities in the northern states
C. Large casualties from the war in the southern states
D. Any agricultural opportunities in the southern states
1. Answer: C
2. Answer: B
3. Answer: B
4. Answer: A
5. Answer: A
6. Answer: B
7. Answer: D
8. Answer: C
9. Answer: B
10. Answer: A
11. Answer: D
12. Answer: C
13. Answer: B
14. Answer: B
15. Answer: C
16. Answer: B
17. Answer: C
18. Answer: A
19. Answer: A
20. Answer: B
21. Answer: A
22. Answer: B
23. Answer: A
24. Answer: C
25. Answer: B
26. Answer: B
27. Answer: D
28. Answer: B
29. Answer: C
30. Answer: C
31. Answer: B
32. Answer: D
33. Answer: B
34. Answer: B
35. Answer: B
36. Answer: C
37. Answer: B
38. Answer: B
39. Answer: D
40. Answer: A
| | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>41.</td>
<td>Answer: A</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>42.</td>
<td>Answer: B</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>43.</td>
<td>Answer: A</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>44.</td>
<td>Answer: D</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>45.</td>
<td>Answer: D</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>46.</td>
<td>Answer: C</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>47.</td>
<td>Answer: B</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>48.</td>
<td>Answer: B</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>49.</td>
<td>Answer: B</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>50.</td>
<td>Answer: A</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>51.</td>
<td>Answer: B</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>52.</td>
<td>Answer: B</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>53.</td>
<td>Answer: D</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>54.</td>
<td>Answer: A</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>55.</td>
<td>Answer: A</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>56.</td>
<td>Answer: C</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>57.</td>
<td>Answer: B</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>